'47 La Torre Begins New Publications Era

By MAX MILLER

Today, as it has for several decades, the yearly edition of La Torre arrives on campus. Ordinarily, the campus yearbook records the names and faces of graduates, the outstanding social and athletic events of the period which it represents, and a nostalgic message to be recalled in future years.

PHIL CLAYTON

This time, La Torre of 1947, with its 234 pages and more than 2000 pictures, is more than just a review of the year's activities in picture and word. Its editor, Phyllis Clayton, its business manager, Bill Ellsworth, and its staff or 20 have engineered a milestone.

At a time when the enrollment of San Jose State college is at an all-time high, La Torre staff has undertaken successfully the difficult and extremely risky job of creating, editing, and selling a $16,000 book which must attempt to be of interest to every individual and department in a school population running close to 6000 in number.

La Torre of 1947 marks the beginning of a new era in Washington Square history. It commemorates the start of a new program of building and expansion, both in the school itself and in future student activities.

La Torres Are Still Available

"Students still may purchase 1947 La Torres at one of the publications office windows today," announced Bill Ellsworth, yearbook business manager.

Distribution of the books will begin at either 12:20 or 1:30, and graduating seniors are requested to line up alphabetically at one of the three windows designated for handing out La Torres.

"Other students may pick up their yearbooks Tuesday beginning at 9:30 a.m.," stated Ellsworth.

Exceeding all previous sales by almost half, this year's La Torres are going fast, according to the business manager.

Make Reservations

Students planning to attend State Camp in September must make reservations in the Business or SCA office by Friday, June 13, announces the Business office.

Reservations may be made by paying a $3 deposit now, it was announced. The total cost of attending State Camp as Asilomar, near Pacific Grove, will be $10.

LA MAR, BRAY, SOPH COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

Dale La Mar and Phil Bray, elected Friday in the final election of Association Student Body officers, complete the Student Council for 1947-48.

Executive officers for the new council include Emerson "Doc" Arends, president; Pat Polk, vice-president; Margaret MacLean, secretary; and Charlotte Harder, treasurer. Council representatives are Hal Riddle, Beverly Clay, Doug Morrison, Pat Walsh, La Mar, and Bray.

Eligibility of La Mar and Bray was challenged after the nominations assembly by Tom Wall, nominations assembly chairman, but Chief Justice Mary Lou Allen refuted the charges Friday. She declared that a Student Court justice, present at the assembly, heard the two nominated.

The new and the old Student Councils will celebrate the first session of the 1947-48 council tonight with a dinner meeting at Lou's Village, at 7.

Student business now pending will be disposed of after dinner.

Included on the agenda, is approval of appointment of editor and business manager for the Fall quarter Spartan Daily, La Torre and Lycurgus editors, and a Social Affairs, and Rally Committee chairman.

Season Tickets Go On Sale Today

Season tickets for the 1947 home grid games are now on sale in the Business office, room 32, according to Bill Felse, graduate manager.

Good for five games in Spartan stadium next fall, the tickets are in sections C and E and sell for $9.

"This is a $1.80 saving over the regular price of tickets to the five contests," Felse points out. "All seats are reserved for the USC game September 19 and sell for $3. The Hardin Simmons ducats go for $2.40, and the other three for $1.80 each, if you buy individual tickets," Felse explained.

Students who plan to purchase the five game books are urged to do so as soon as possible if they desire good seats. At present, all of the center section is gone and C and E are selling rapidly, Felse said.

The San Jose Boosters club has joined in the drive to sell season tickets again this year, and hopes to dispose of 2400 before the season opens. Last year the club was instrumental in the sale of 1600 booklets, which also was a record sale.

Spartan rooters for the USC game will be doctored $1 for the season opener and a special section will be set aside for them on the east bank of the stadium.

SJS BAND ON AIR

The Symphonic Band will be featured tonight in a special fifteen minute broadcast over station KSJO from 7:30 to 7:45. The "State Fight Song" and "Hail, Spartans, Hail" will be heard on the program.

Assembly Honors 140 Students Today

Climaxed by an introduction of the new Student Council, today's Recognition assembly will honor more than 140 students for scholastic and service achievements during the past year.

The assembly will be in Morris Dailey auditorium, from 11:20 to 12:30. President T. W. MacQuarrie has excused all classes for that hour.

DR. DOWNEY LEADS CONCERT TOMORROW NIGHT

Dr. Lyle Downey, conductor for the Spring concert of the college symphony which will be given tomorrow night in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 8:15, has had a wide background in music and in conducting musical programs.

Dr. Downey came to State last fall from Kansas State college where he was the director of instrumental music. He has trained at James Millikin university, the University of Illinois, the American Conservatory of Music, Eastman School of Music and Iowa State college.

He has studied conducting with Eric DeLamater, Frederick Stock, Paul White, and Philip Clapp. Conducting has not been his only interest, however, as he won gold medals for two consecutive years in composition at the American Conservatory. While at Kansas State he composed one of the school songs.

"In choosing the program for this concert," Dr. Downey explained, "I considered the playing range of the orchestra and selected compositions which the audience would enjoy and which would give the orchestra development which it needed. The Chadwick Suite is especially a favorite with me."

Senior Ball Bid Sale Open To All

Bids to the Senior ball Saturday at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, are now on sale to all student body card holders for $3.75 in the business office.

Glenn Gray and his Casa Loma orchestra will play for the formal affair. Attire will be evening jackets, tuxedos or dark suits for men and formals for women.

All seniors taking part in Baccalaureate Sunday will assemble in the Little Theater Thursday at 11 a.m. for rehearsal. According to Dr. James DeVoss, chairman faculty committee on commencement activities, seniors not present for rehearsal can not participate in the exercise.

Due to rain the Senior Scram at Seaciff Saturday was called off.

Truman Warns Russ

WASHINGTON, June 8, (UP) — President Truman returned here today to cope with an ominous situation of European communism. He threatened to carry the U.S. to "Sphere of Influence" struggle Westward from the Balkans.

It was an aroused president who flew back from Kansas City, Mo., where last night he sounded an impromptu warning to potential aggressors not to repeat Japan's mistake of thinking the United States too weak to fight.

'OVER 21' TICKETS

A few tickets for tonight's performance of "Over Twenty-One" are on sale in the Speech office. Curtain rises at 8:15 on the three-act comedy by Ruth Gordon.

Marty Taylor, this year's ASB president, will turn over the gavel to the new president, Emerson "Doc" Arends, after presentation of the awards of merit, and special departmental awards.

President MacQuarrie will announce the 20 students with the highest scholastic records for the year. These students will receive engraved scrolls.

Black Masque, honorary senior women's society, and Spartan Spears, sophomore honorary women's society, also are to be introduced.

Certificates of merit will be presented to 80 students by Dean Paul Pitman and Tom Wall, chairman of the assembly. The awards are for departmental honors and participation in student affairs.

Special awards include: the Phelan award; the Bassler Award, Phi Beta Kappa; the Jules Bozzi scholarship; a Modern Language award; Music department award; and a boxing trophy. Faculty members will make the presentations.

Registrar Releases Names of Top Grads

Thirty-three seniors will be graduating with great distinction June 20, according to a list released today by the Registrar's office. They are:

DAY EDITOR—This Issue—JACK SILVEY

IN WITH THE NEW

This date marks the end of a regime in San Jose State college politics. Tonight at a banquet at Lou's Village, the 1947-48 Student Council takes over for the coming school year.

It is impossible to judge what the new council will do in its term of office, but we can pass on the outgoing legislators now that their tenure is complete. The outgoing councilors have been ambitious ones—right or wrong, they have never wanted for action.

The job of reestablishing student government after a period of relative inactivity is not an easy one, and this council has gone after the task with a relish. There have been several outstanding performers in this group, as there are in any legislative body, but it is not our duty to commend or condemn. Rather we would like to urge the new council to look over the actions of the old carefully and follow them when they were right, correct them when they were wrong.

To learn by mistakes is the painful way, but in many cases it is the most effective. We thank the outgoing council for its work and look forward to an equally successful year under the new.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

By IRENE BRENNAN

Ray Toensing, freshman art major from San Leandro, announced her engagement to Bud Tassano, freshman business major from San Leandro, this week.

The couple plan to be married sometime this summer.

Dot Harnish, freshman social science major from Campbell, has announced that she will marry John P. Smith, freshman engineering major from Campbell, on June 29.

Betty Jane Morris, senior kindergarten-primary major from San Jose, has announced her engagement to Matthew Simon, freshman engineering major from New York.

Ruby Maxine Peterson, freshman commerce major from San Jose, announced her engagement this week to Jack Foster, freshman pre-dental major from San Leandro.

A daughter was born this week to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lundstrom. The new father is a freshman music major.

The baby has been named Sharon Ann.

Muriel Fammatre, sophomore occupational therapy major from Campbell, announced at the last meeting of Zeta Chi society that she will marry Ross Walker of San Jose.

No plans have been made for the wedding.

The couple plan to make their home in San Jose, and continue their studies here after their marriage.

Anne Suits, sophomore kindergarten-primary major from Livermore, has announced her engagement to Deane Healey, junior speech and drama major from San Jose.

VET'S BULL SESSION

By HAL SNOOK

All amputee veterans of World War II who have not yet made application for automobiles from the government were urged today by the Veterans' Administration to do so immediately, because June 30 is the deadline which cancels the appropriation to pay for the cars.

Veterans who lost a leg or the use of a leg in World War II need only establish their eligibility for an automobile before June 30. When eligibility is established, the VA will pay for the car when it is delivered.

Veterans of World War II have until August 1 to reinstate their National Service Life Insurance under simplified procedures. Lapsed term insurance may be reinstated by mailing two monthly premiums and a signed statement to the effect that the veteran's health is as good now as it was on the date the policy lapsed to the Veterans Administration, 180 New Montgomery street, San Francisco, 5, California.

Reports coming from Washington have it that General Omar Bradley would like to return to active duty with the U. S. Army, after turning over his present job as Administrator of Veterans Affairs to someone else.

THRUST and PARRY

Chicago Bound?

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It has come to my attention that there are several Spartans who will be in the Chicago area this summer for anywhere from two days to three months. It seems to me that it would be a good idea for them to try to get together for a party at least once or twice. For this reason I am soliciting the names of all of those students who intend to be in Chicago at that time.

Because of that I am taking the liberty of using the Thrust and Parry column to try and contact these wandering Chicagoans. I would appreciate it a great deal if they would get in touch with me by leaving a note addressed to me in the "W" box in the Co-op, with their name, their address, their expected Chicago address, and the dates which they expect to be in Chicago.

—Daniel W. Weck

Who's Stupid?

Dear Thrust and Parry and Mr. Sink:

I fail to see anything so stupid about the San Jose editorial of which you spoke. After all, the fraternity in question is a college, not a religious, organization.

Let's have no room in SJS for prejudice, but rather let's keep it a model of democracy as an institution of higher learning ought to be.

The more we separate, the more we'll have to keep separating, and the more the complications, and misunderstandings, and ill-feelings which will result. That is disastrous to individual freedom and character, and so also to democracy.

Hurrah for the fraternity with such fair and square members!
—Thelma McWhirter
ASB 2033

Faith

Dear Thrust and Parry, and Paul B. Sink:

Your letter has restored my faith in at least part of humanity; that is, the campus fraternity and some member of the San Jose News editorial staff.

To begin with, what have religious organizations got to do with college fraternities. The former, which incidentally often welcome those of other faiths, provide sufficient opportunity for those of the same worship to intermingle. Most people narrow their friendships in every field? We are at college to broaden our understandings, knowledge, and interests.

Also there are Catholics, and I might add, Jews—in the Masons. Catholics are not excluded by the organization, but rather by their own preference due to their religious beliefs, which is certainly a more natural way of doing things.

Jewish fraternities are in part a defense against the refusal of membership in other fraternities. True, these organizations do not, as far as I know, have any gentiles in their ranks, but have they ever tried to get in? At any rate, "two wrongs never make a right."

The barring of Jews also automatically excludes Chinese, Negroes, Japanese, and perhaps Koreans, Mexicans and so forth. What reason have you for a desire to set yourself apart? Do you think you're any better than they? Oh brother!

EAT, DRINK, AND BE MERRY; CO-OP MEMBERS LIVE LIKE KINGS

By ABNER FRITZ

"For three dollars a week, we've been eating like kings!" Vic McLane smacked his lips and continued talking of such culinary morsels as steaks and chops and roasts and, well we stopped him somewhere between veal cutlets and leg of lamb.

McLane is a member of the Co-op eating club which meets every evening from Monday to Friday at 6 p.m. in the Unitarian church, for no other purpose than to devour the food placed on the table in large quantity and of high quality.

At present the club has only 30 members, but hopes to expand in the fall when the members move into their own house, which they expect to have by then.

Al Martin is president of the outfit; Gene Foley, vice president; and Bill Martin is the treasurer. Outside of their 60 cents per meal, members also furnish about one hour of work per week, usually consisting of cleanup after the meal.

Cooking is done by Alton Jensen and Richard Robinson, who receive their meals and a slight remuneration for their culinary endeavors.

The eating club buys its food through a consumer's cooperative and is trying to unite with the Spartan house, girls' cooperatives in furthering the local movement to cut expenses for college students.

Menus are largely determined by the foods available at good prices. The Home Economics department has aided in planning these bills of fare.

Tri-Beta Exhibits Varied Skeletons

Every family may have a skeleton in the closet, but few can boast the impressive and varied collection of boney structures mustered by Tri-Beta, honorary biology society, for an exhibit currently showing on the second floor of the science building.

The new exhibit affords one an intimate, vulture's eye-view of the framework of we Homo sapiens, a fish, a bat, a monkey, a frog, and an alligator.

Pledges Begin 'Hell Week'

"Hell Week" for ten pledges of Phi Mu Alpha, men's honorary music fraternity, begins today, according to President Bill Smith.

Max Hagemeyer, as "Hell-master," is in charge of Gene Graves, Wallace Johnson, Ellsworth Judy, Bob Linn, Dale Olson, Ken Peters, Richard Payton, Jack Summers, George DeGregori, and Al Vines, who are being pledged.

Jim Schwartz was host to the fraternity for the social evening which featured pledge auditions.

SPARTAN DAILY
SPORTS
MONDAY, JUNE 9, 1947

From the Pressbox

By TOM ROWEN

FAN MAIL:

We are gaining in popularity. We have the fortunate experience of receiving a Thrust and Parry from a student who read a recent column.

Following was received:

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Attention Tom Rowen:

Whassamatter, does not the San Jose State college athletic moguls desire the honor of a baseball championship bestowed upon their very deserving undergraduate diamond cavorters?

As t'was said in a recent article in the Mercury Herald, and again by Tom Rowen of the Spartan Daily Sports Staff, the bat-wielding performers of Coach Walt McPherson's SJS club could conceivably have won the California Collegiate Athletic Association baseball championship had they played off a couple of rained-out CCAA double-headers. Why did the athletic big-wigs of this institution of learning choose to fore-go this opportunity from the student body. Or did a distant football season and Spring training loom more important than a nearly won baseball championship.

Comment:

Yes, Mr. ASB 6746, we believe that the Spartan baseball team could have won the championship, provided they would have played San Diego State and Santa Barbara college.

But Mr. ASB 6746, did you know that many San Jose State college students did not know that San Jose State had a baseball team?

Many times at Sparan home games, we could count the house on our fingers and toes. The softball games which are being played on the San Carlos Athletic field are drawing bigger crowds than any CCAA baseball game drew all season.

The baseball team recieved as much space in the Spartan Daily as any sport but State college students never attended.

NEXT YEAR:

Let's remember that next year Mr. ASB 6746 when the baseball season begins. Only three members from this year's team will be missing and the Spartans will stand a good chance of copping the title.

Municipal stadium where Coach McPherson's team play is only a short distance from town. The stadium is one of the finest ball parks in this part of the country.

Let's remember this next year and support the baseball team instead of having only 19 persons present for a CCAA game.

LA BEE IS PREXY

Happy LaBee was elected president of Alpha Epsilon, Spartan chapter of the national honorary physical education fraternity, Phi Epsilon Kappa, at a recent meeting.

GAMMA PHI SIGMA WINS FRAT TRACK CHAMPIONSHIP

Gamma Phi Sigma amassed 62 points Saturday to defeat five other fraternities at Spartan Field in the first renewal of the Inter-Fraternity track meet since 1942. Alpha Pi Omega took runner-up honors by scoring 54½ points.

The 60 yard adviser dash, heralded as the main feature of the day, was won by Dr. Earl Campbell, running for Delta Sigma Gamma. Rocci Pisano placed second in the event. Time for the feature dash was 8:3.

APO had an opportunity to annex the meet in the broad jump which was the last event of the day. GPS was leading by only four and one half points and a first and second place would have given APO the championship. However, Wayne Kronsnap, representing GPS leaped 19 feet 6½ inches to capture the event with Knight Pitsker capturing third place honors to put GPS in the winner's circle.

Other scores were: Delta Sigma Gamma 37; Beta Chi Sigma 31½; Sigma Gamma Omega, 11; and Theta Mu Sigma 6.

MUMBY ANNOUNCES PCI MEDAL WINNERS

Winners of the Robert Roumasset wrestling award and the second and third place Pacific Coast Intercollegiate medals will be presented their awards by Coach Ted Mumby this evening at Alum Rock park.

Coach Mumby is keeping quiet about who will win the Roumasset trophy until this evening. He has, however, announced the eight winners of the PCI medals. The Spartans were edged out by San Diego State for the title, while California came in third. The tourney was held in Los Angeles.

Mermen, Netmen Lose CCAA Titles; Horsehidors Have On-Off Season

Eds. Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles summarizing the 1946-1947 sports activities at San Jose State college.

By WILBUR AGEE

Coach Charlie Walker took over the coaching of the swimming team where he left off in 1942 and with only a few veterans and plenty of freshmen he produced a team that came through with six victories and six defeats.

The Spartans out swam Cal Poly, St. Mary's and the Cal Aggie mermen twice, each time by large margins. However, Stanford, PCI champs; California; Fullerton junior college, outstanding JC team in the country; and the Olympic club defeated San Jose's game but inexperienced team.

Closest meets of the year was with College of Pacific, who only this year built up their swimming team. Both meets were decided by the final relay with the Tigers on the long end of the count in each meet.

LOSE TITLE

The Spartans lost the CCAA title for the first time since the league was formed as the Tigers piled up 71 points to San Jose's 69. The Spartans had depth but couldn't match the Tigers top swimmers.

The freshmen swimmers had but three meets this year but came through to win two of these for a good average. They topped San Jose and Sequoia high schools and lost to Palo Alto high.

Coach Ted Mumby took over the mentoring of the tennis team this year for the first time and although not winning many matches during the season the Spartans should have a good team next year.

The season record for the netmen show only three wins against nine losses. However, the record does not mean that the individual matches were not close. In the conference meet San Jose relinquished the title they won the previous year to College of Pacific, who has one of the best teams in the Bay Area this year.

BASEBALL OPENS

Coach Walt McPherson was active on the baseball field soon after the close of basketball season and the Spartans fielded a better than average baseball team.

In their practice games they split with St. Mary's, University of San Francisco, and San Francisco State in home games. The Spartans, however, bowed to Stanford in a pre-season game and California in mid-season.

SOUTH INVASION

During the Spring vacation, the Spartan nine invaded the Southland and turned in an impressive record. They stopped Cal Poly twice, divided with San Diego and took two practice games from the San Diego Marine base nine. However, their two contests with Santa Barbara were rained out. If these games had been replayed it might have meant a different outcome of the conference race, which San Diego won.

After returning to San Jose at the start of the Spring quarter the Spartans divided their first home league doubleheader with Santa Barbara. They then lost one and won at Fresno. Returning once more to the local diamond the Spartans won a twin bill from College of Pacific.

TITLE A POSSIBILITY

Fresno came to town and bowed twice to the Spartans, to keep them still in the running for the title. However, the next week the Spartans split with Cal Poly here and a week later they divided with College of Pacific in Stockton.

At this time San Diego with only four games left with COP had virtually won the CCAA title and it was decided by the coaching staff to let the two unplayed games with Santa Barbara go as well as the double header with San Diego, which was rained out here. However, the Aztec nine dropped three of their four games to COP and if the San Jose nine had replayed the four games the championship might have been theirs.

DAILY LEAGUE PLAYOFFS ENTER SECOND ROUND

Softball play in the Daily league playoffs continue today on the San Carlos Athletic field with Chandler's Fugitives playing the 357 team, on diamond 1, and Hank's All Stars battling the Newman club on diamond 2. Both games will start at 4:30 p.m.

The Music department and Modestans have been eliminated in the playoffs and two teams will be forced out today. Jackson's Sluggers are the other team left in the playoffs. They draw a bye in today's round and will play the winner of the Newman-All Star game.

Rain has set the playoffs back, and the championship between the playoff winner and Alpha Pi Omega, frat league champions, probably will be played Thursday.

Two of the top pitchers will compete today as Lee Clark, manager of the Fugitives, has an undefeated record in Daily league play while Val Marchi, 357 hurler, has two one-hit games to his credit. Hank Ruiz and Lee McCaslin will be opposing pitchers in the other game.
